

Spring, a time to sow seed

What seeds have been sown in the soil of your soul?

Lydia is married to her devoted husband John and is mother of four incredible children. She holds a master's of applied theology from Carey. She is passionate about psychological justice and inspiring others towards deeper intimacy with God the Father and Jesus Christ through the Holy Spirit.

Come and be inspired!

7:30 pm Saturday 21st September. All ladies welcome!

Please fill in the sign up sheet or RSVP to teresa@pepc.org.nz for catering purposes. Thank you.

Do let us know if you need transport and we will see what we can arrange.

Brittany, Eleanor and Teresa

